

Dennis is a Chartered Geologist at Arup who is well trained in slope engineering, ground modelling, and ground condition assessments for infrastructure and development projects as well as tunnels and caverns. He also has an in-depth experience in natural terrain hazard studies, ground investigation works design and supervision, and landslide assessments and analyses.